FREE Radio Service

2RPH - Sydney's Radio Reading Service

This free community radio service presents daily broadcasts by volunteers who read major newspapers, magazines, books and other publications covering a wide variety of interests. This service is not only available for individuals with eyesight problems, but also for those who cannot read, the elderly, those with arthritis/difficulty holding print-outs, or simply for those who would prefer to sit back and listen. It is aimed for young and old listeners, providing information for sports fans, cooks, gardeners, animal lovers, music lovers, bookworms, science enthusiasts, and the health-conscious.

The radio station can be found on the AM band at 1224, between 2CH and 2SM.
